There was some question as to the legality of taking pictures of NA members, without their permission, who attended the Strength In Numbers Retreat fund raising dance. Bonner will be checking with World so more will be revealed.

There was some question to the announcement of the New Years Eve function by Unity in Recovery which is neither an AA or NA sanctioned function. We should not be announcing it at NA meetings or functions, even though there are a number of NA members involved. The money raised will be going back into the community.
